SAFETY MATTERS

Safety is top priority for Dungannon Window Company Ltd. This is why we have spent time researching the finest type of sash travel restrictors. We currently use two different products which gives you and your customer a choice that suits.

- * Restricts the amount of opening on the Sash Window.
- * They are discreet in appearance and can be located on the top sash to your specification.
- * The key (shown to left) releases an inner barrel which restricts the window from being raised.

- * No need for Keys
- * Spring loaded lever is discreet especially when flush
- * When lever is activated it restricts the sash opening height
- * comes in white or gold finish
